“ I have a childhood memory of Mr. Wolski as a hunter and outdoorsman. I remember a stuffed fox in a bedroom that fascinated me as a young child. Also deer hanging from a backyard tree, a very unusual sight in our suburban neighborhood, after his return from a hunt in Pennsylvania I think. Mr. Wolski was one of the few men in our neighborhood in Union who loved the outdoors. He always seemed unassuming and a nice man. So sorry to hear of his passing. RIP. Nancy Mehegan

“ Chet Was a good friend to me for about 15 years. We always enjoyed the trips, cruises, dinners, dances, picnics and our weekend card games. I know he'll be happy to meet all his old friends up there, where I know he will go. Goodbye, Chet. Condolences to all his family and friends. Lois and John.
